

Dear Parent:

Atlanta founded and based UniverSoul Circus marks its 14th year of the Food for the Soul program working with another hometown favorite Hosea Helps. The Food for the Soul program invites school children throughout the metro Atlanta area to participate in the food drive for a chance to win tickets to UniverSoul Circus for the entire school during the 2019 engagement in Atlanta.

Your child's school has chosen to participate to donate non-perishable food items to help feed thousands throughout the year. The school that collects the greatest amount of food will receive tickets for the entire school to a special 10:30am performance of UniverSoul Circus in February. To level the playing field for schools that have small student populations, the second and third place winners will be determined based on ratio of food to students.

Food for the Soul reinforces character, education and citizenship through sharing, teamwork, and philanthropy. Attending the UniverSoul Circus will provide the students cultural and educational benefits as they view the incredible feats of artists from several countries around the globe.

Your child may take the non-perishable food items to school any day from November 5th – December 7th, and all winners will be announced on the UniverSoul Circus website and Facebook page, in the schools, and in the media on December 19th.

On behalf of the thousands of people this food will help to feed, UniverSoul Circus and Hosea Helps thank you for your support.
